Olympian

MHS

the annual staff
of milan high school
presents the 1956
OLYMPIAN

In Appreciation

Our dedication of this page to Mr. Oliver S. Genn is one small way in which we have of showing our appreciation for his helpful assistance and guidance for the "Olympian."

Dedication

Mrs. Freatman has directed all the Junior and Senior plays, forensics, and was our Junior Class Advisor. We would like to thank her for all the time and patience she has given us.

We, the Class of 1956, wish to dedicate this edition of the "Olympian" to Mrs. Marilyn Freatman and Mr. George Allen, who have contributed much to our high school days.

Mr. Allen has taught for many years, and we would like to show him in this small way our gratitude for all that he has contributed to the students who have attended Milan High.

Valedictorian

The Valedictorian for the Class of 1956, Vienna Rains, has maintained a very high scholastic rating throughout her entire four years of high school. During high school she participated in many activities such as band, language club, annual staff, and journalism.

Vienna is planning to attend Eastern Michigan College at Ypsilanti, where she plans to prepare to be a high school teacher.

Salutatorians

This year, for the first time, there are two salutatorians. These students who have maintained an excellent scholastic rating during high school are Nannette Horton and Elaine Dacey.

Nannette after being graduated plans to attend the University of Michigan School of Music. There she will major in piano to prepare herself to become a private piano teacher.

Nannette has been active in journalism, forensics, band, and received the honor of the D.A.R. award.

Elaine plans to attend college and complete a course in specialized education. She has been active in chorus, annual staff, forensics, and journalism.

There are eleven other members of the Class of 1956 who achieved honor rating scholastically. They are: Kay Shupp, John Johnson, Don Hann, Rosalie Winegarden, Marilyn Schmalholz, Virginia Wanty, Faye Nichols, Jo Ann Smith, Ralph Ernst, Robert DeVee, and Peggy Pickett.

Class Poem

Our stage has been at Milan High,
Our task, a four act play.
The final curtain has drawn nigh;
We'll tell of it today.

As Extras, the first act
Was found both new and strange;
We, with the turning of each page
Adjusted to the change.

The second act went fleeting past.
We read CAESAR--"The Die is Cast."
As bright, new Starlets we were known;
The seeds of learning here were sown.

Understudies, our junior year,
We planned the Theatre's Ball.
A play in a play was introduced:
MEN ARE LIKE STREETCARS was produced.

In robes of blue we stood in line,
Stars at last--All Eighty-nine.
The final curtain fell all too soon;
Oscars were given the seventh of June.

And now that the title of Stars we've won,
The real test of talent has just begun.
We'll greet the world with our heads held high
And look each new role straight in the eye.

The curtain is down; we're on our way
Into the world--And a bigger play.

Class History

The opening night for the thespians of "56" began on September 1, 1952, when one-hundred and fourteen frightened freshmen (Or should I say "Extras"?) made their debut on the stage of M.H.S. This group consisted of forty-seven boys, and sixty-seven girls. On September 24, the Freshman Reception was held. Here we became acquainted with other members of the cast and began to feel more at home. Our class officers for Act I were Maurice Tommelein, President; Judie Bubel, Vice-President; Pat Meyer, Secretary; Louella Reum, Treasurer; Judie Bubel, Student Council Representative; Mr. Jones and Mrs. Makielski, Advisors.

We entered our sophomore year as "Starlets" with a little more confidence. We were allowed to join clubs and many of us became very active in extra-curricular affairs. In May we selected our class rings. To direct us in our rehearsal we elected John Heritage, President; Faye Nichols, Secretary; Robert Dersey, Treasurer; Ann Korican, Student Council Representative; Mr. Allan and Miss Vannorsdall were our Advisors.

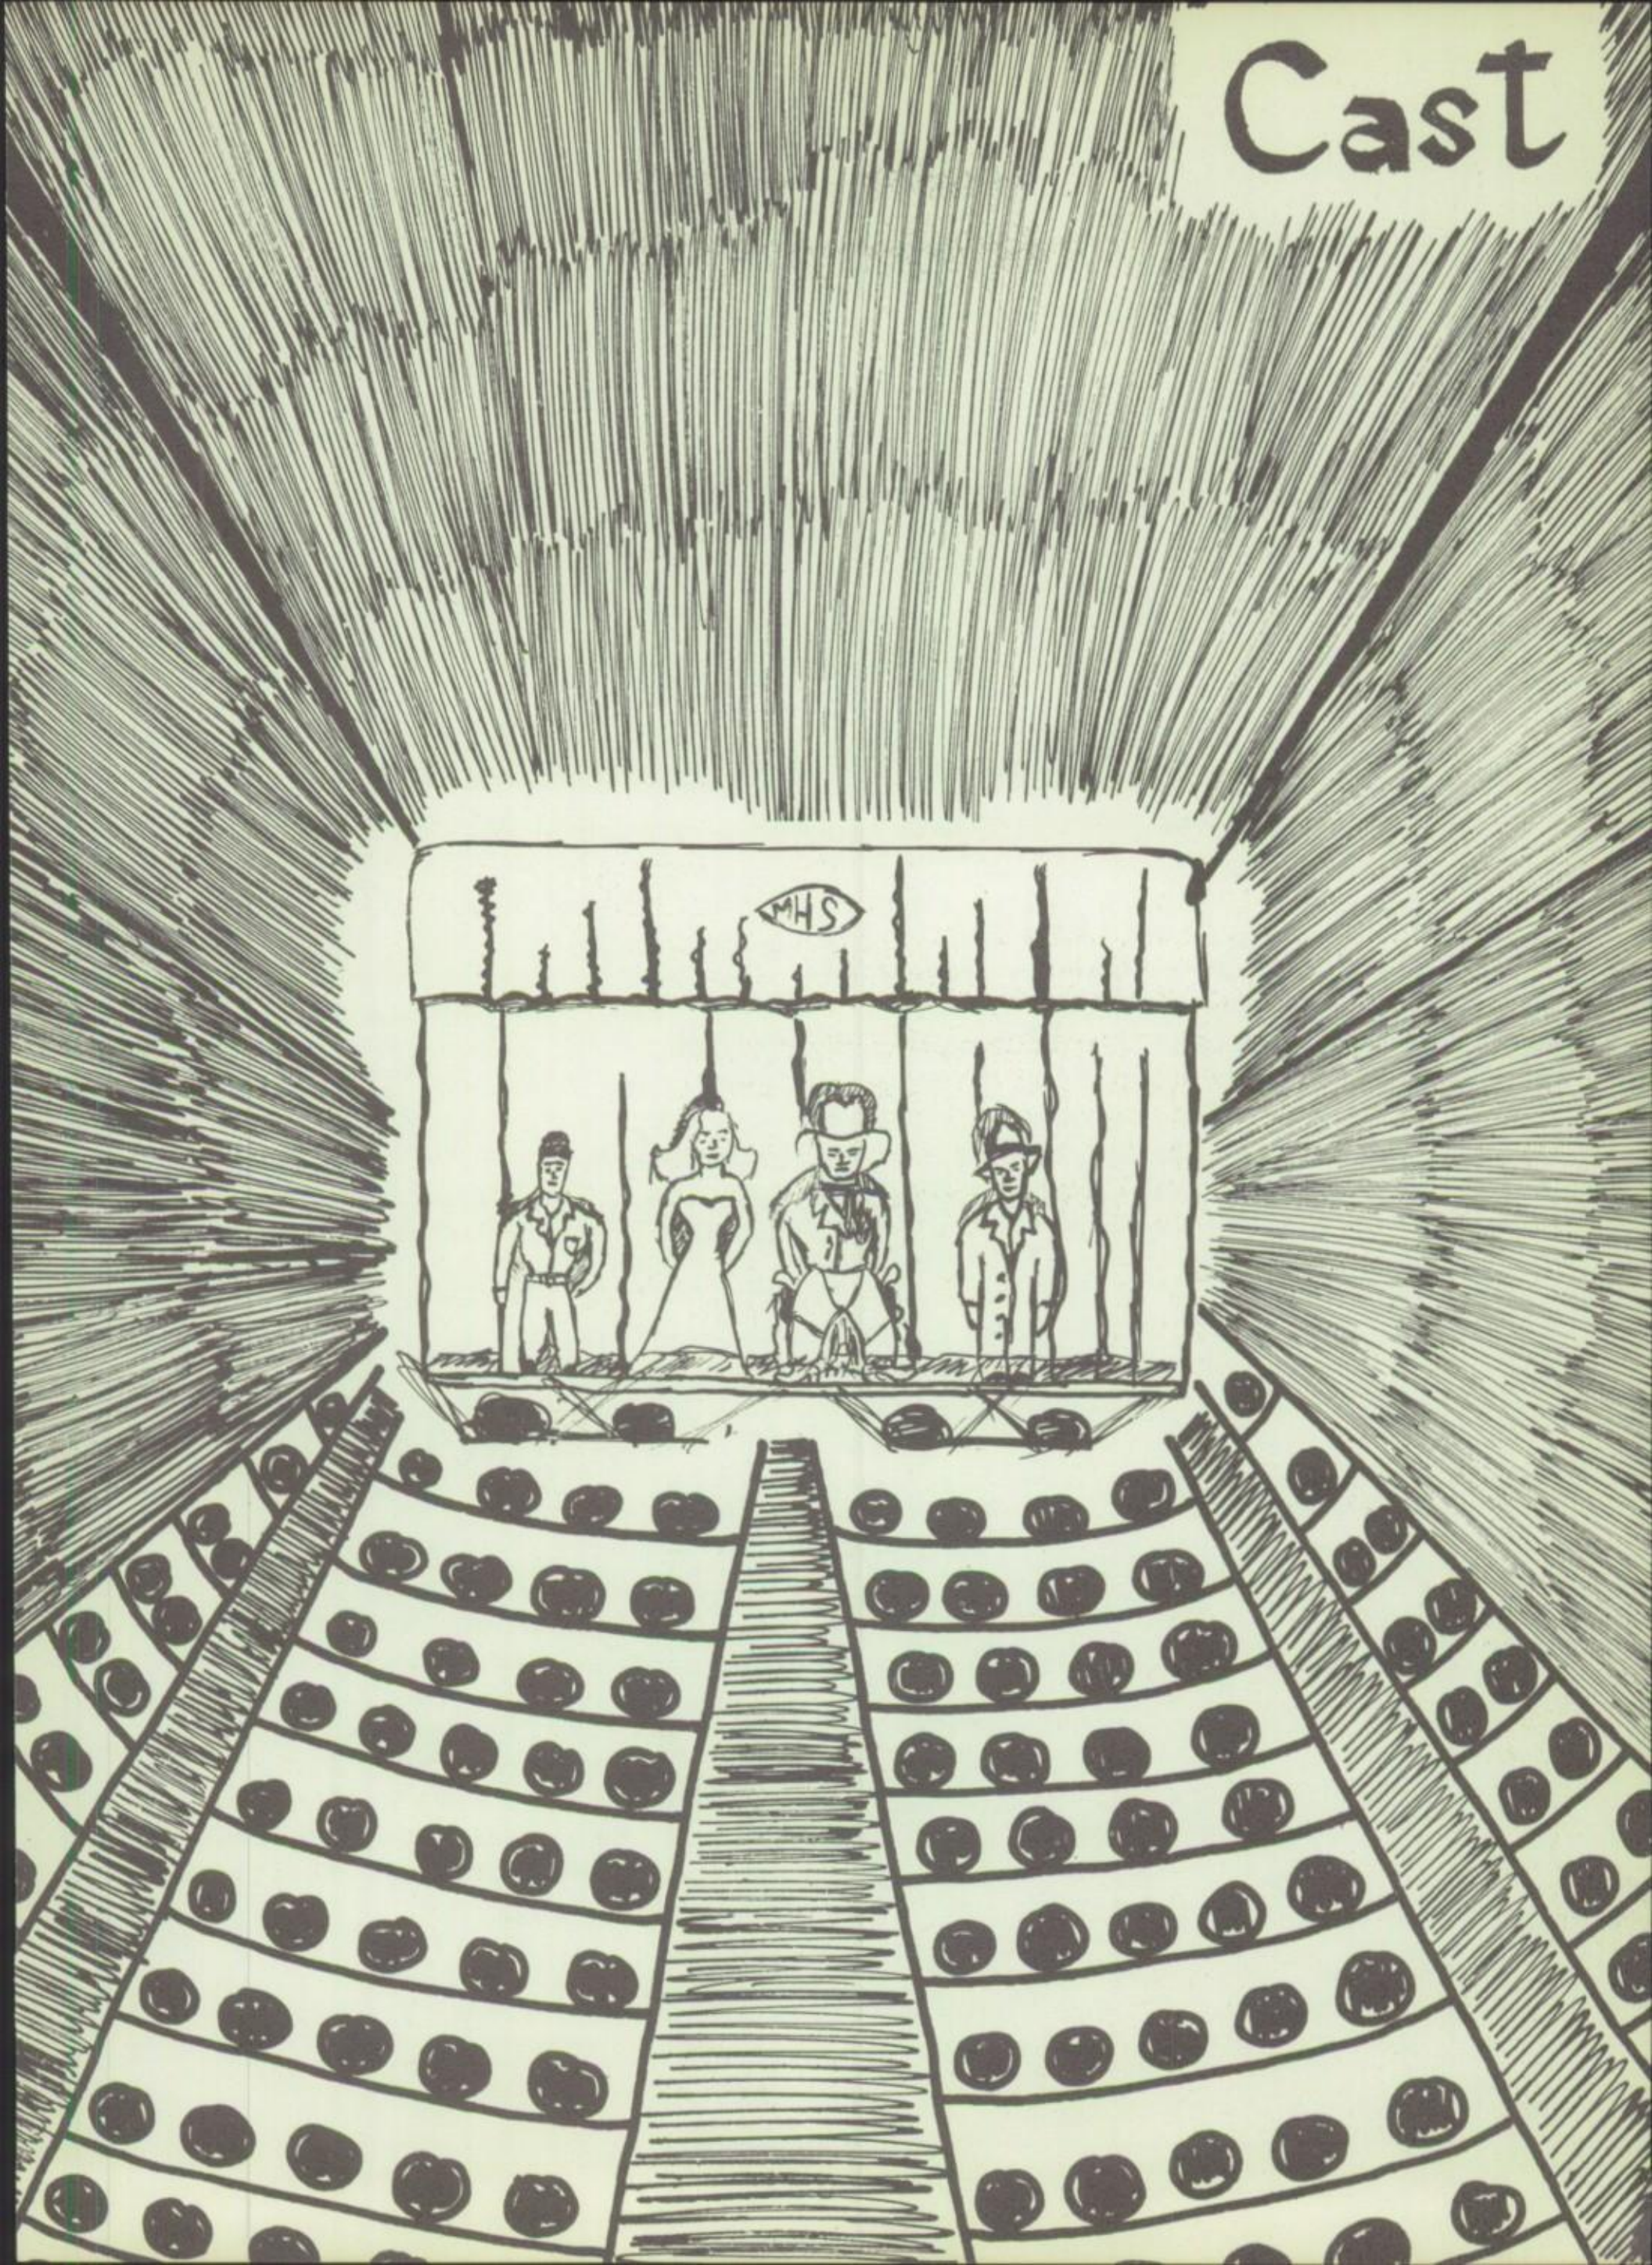

Our junior year was more eventful than the previous two had been. On April 2, 1955, the class of "56" earned the title of "Understudies" by the presentation of Men Are Like Streetcars. This was a three-act comedy under the direction of Mrs. Ellis Freatman. We began looking toward our senior trip by selling popcorn at the football games. The Junior-Senior Reception was held on May 27. The theme was "Moonlight and Roses." Our officers for Act III were Rodney Saltz, President; Pat Meyer, Vice-President; Joyce Southward, Secretary; Ralph Ernst, Treasurer; Arlene Lyon, Student Council Representative; Mrs. Freatman and Mr. Heimbürger, Advisors.

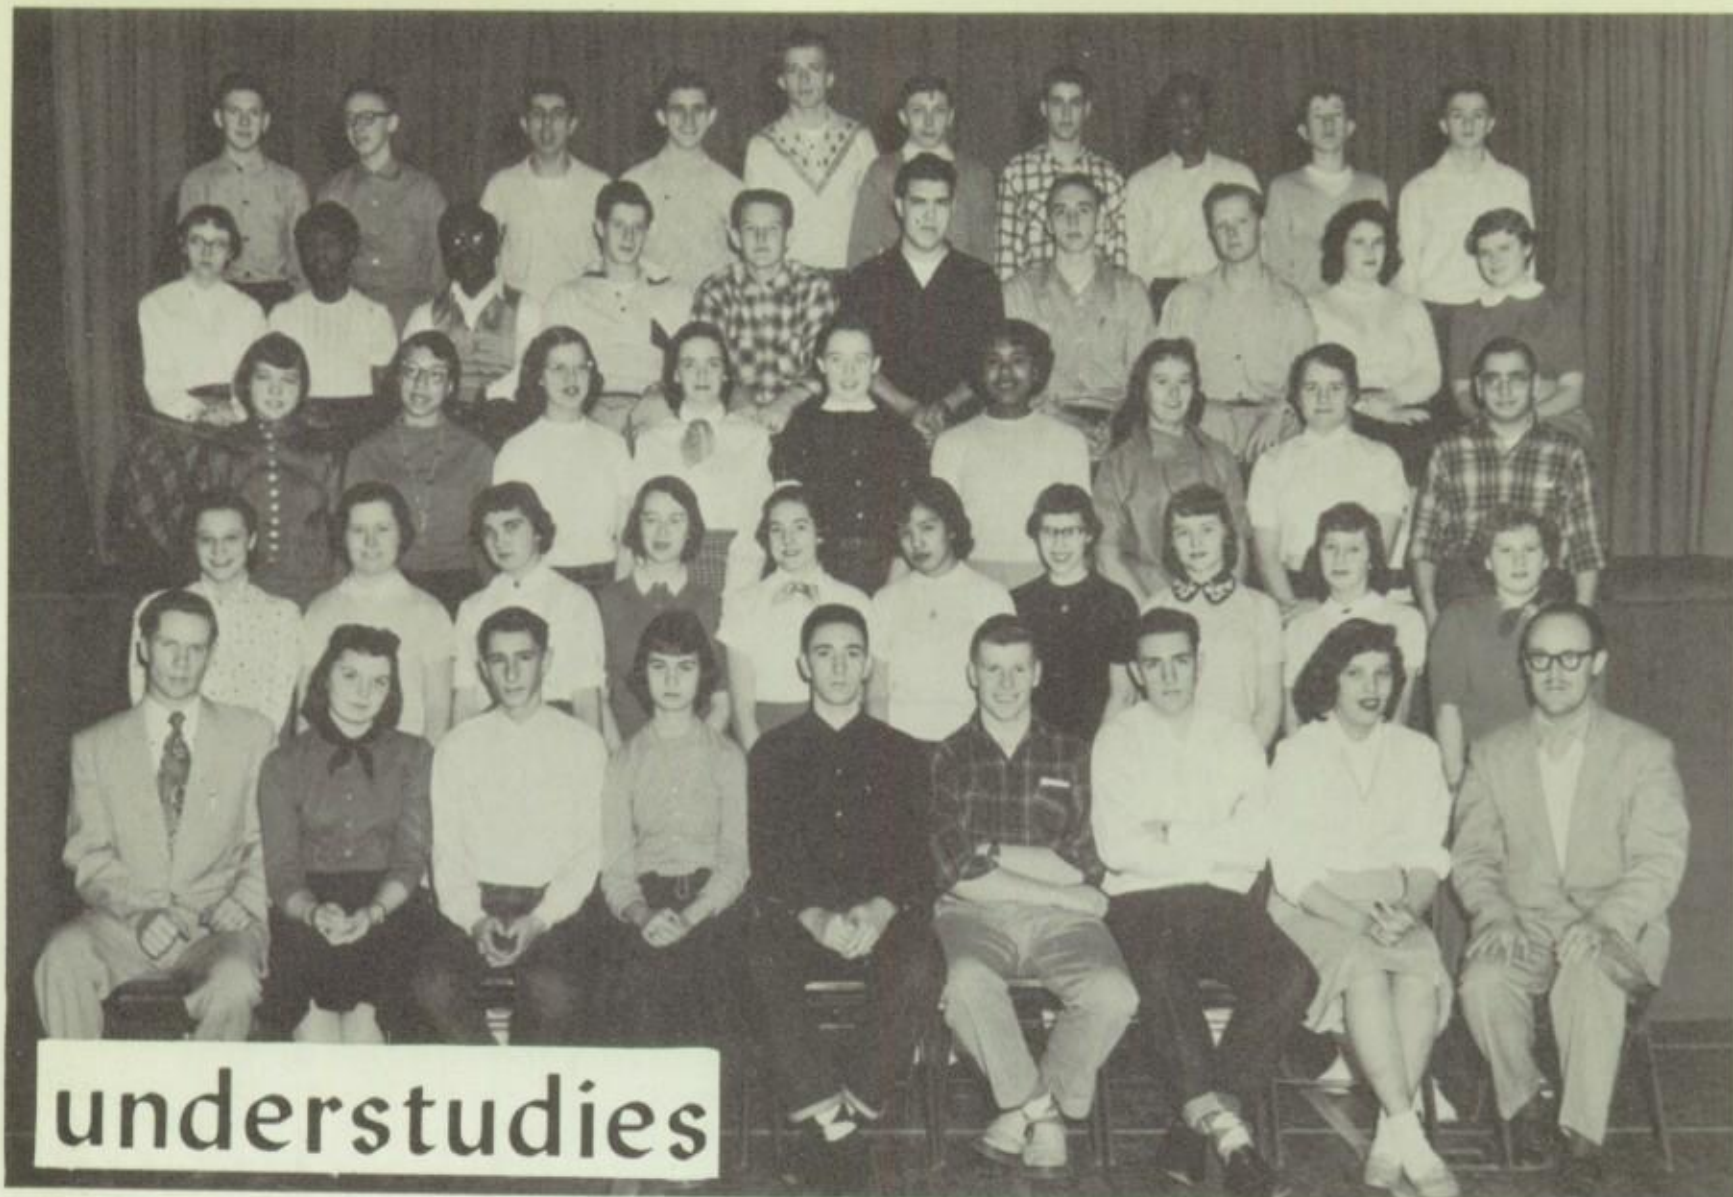

In Act IV, we lost many of our original cast, but in September, 1955, there were eighty-nine seniors registered. Our senior year got off to a bang! On November 19, the class of "56" held its second premiere, Family Circle, under the direction of Mrs. Freatman. Now we had won the title of "Stars." We had several money-making projects: magazine sales, Christmas wreaths, and the concession booth at the football and basketball games. The Journalism Banquet and Dance was held on November 25. The dance was open to all actors of the theatre. The theme was "Blue Moon."

The Homecoming Game was a big occasion for the seniors. Jo Ann Smith was chosen Queen and her senior attendant was Mary O'Donnell. The officers for our last year were John Van Winkle, President; Dan Stralnic, Vice-President; Nannette Horton, Secretary; Gary Pogany, Treasurer; Jo Anne Carver, Student Council Representative; Robert DeVee, Student Council President; Mr. Beale and Mr. McCulloch, Advisors. On May 20, we left on our long awaited trip to New York. We arrived home May 24, and attended the Junior-Senior Reception on May 25. Our last Award Assembly and Swing-Out were held on June 1. We realized that we were nearing the end of our high school days when we attended Baccalaureate on June 3.

At last our Commencement night arrived! On June 7 we, the largest class to have been graduated from M.H.S., received our much cherished "Oscars." At last the final curtain fell on our Four-Act Play.

This year the class is starting something new. We adopted a point system by which members of the class could receive points for work they did in class activities. At the end of the senior year the points will be added and it will be decided how much money each student will receive towards his senior trip.

At all home basketball games the class sponsored a hat-and-coat check stand. This, also, was something new, and seemed to go over very well.

On January 28, the class sponsored a record hop with Ollie's Caravan from Ann Arbor. In spite of the weather there was a lot going on at the dance. This project proved to be a big success.

The Junior Class did a fine job on their play this year, which was "Cheaper By the Dozen." This project provided an enjoyable and entertaining evening for both the class and audience.

This year the sophomore class has eliminated the feeling of confusion, which was present in our first year of high school.

In the fall, we sponsored a dance after a football game.

The highlight of our year was selecting our class rings. We chose the "Eldorado" which is very attractive. Now we can hardly wait until next September when we receive them.

This year's Freshmen class is quite a large group, consisting of 124 members.

In September, the Student Council sponsored a Freshmen Reception to help us become better acquainted with our teachers and classmates.

During the football season we sponsored a dance after the Tecumseh game.

The highlight of the year for the Student Council was the sponsoring of the Homecoming activities.

We also sponsored a reception for the Freshmen to welcome them to high school.

This year the Student Council issued a policy of having hall monitors check the coming and going of students.

Some of the members of the Student Council attended the Huron League Student Council Convention and brought back some new and useful ideas.

Many interesting assemblies were sponsored this year such as Glenn Cunningham, the Deep River Quartet, Mrs. Mayme Lillotte, and "Peppy and the Pirates" for the grade school children.

At the close of the basketball season we chose the cheerleaders for the 1956-57 school year.

The Milan F.F.A. has been kept very busy this past school year. In September we sponsored a barbecue for the Rotary Club. We also carried on a wheat project for the benefit of the club.

Later in the year we went to Chicago to see the sights of the big city and the exhibits at the International Livestock Show. This proved to be quite exciting, educational, and successful.

In December we had our annual Christmas candy sale, which proved to be very profitable for us this year.

The largest project at the end of the year was the Parent-Son Banquet held in April. Barbecued chicken was the speciality served at this banquet. As usual, everyone enjoyed himself.

On September 24, the F.H.A. group attended the Regional Meeting at Michigan State Normal College.

In December, the F.H.A. held a Christmas Bazaar from which the proceeds went to buy useful articles for children in hospitals. We also packed a Christmas box for a needy family.

On February 3, the girls sponsored a "Leap Year" dance after a basketball game.

The hot dog sales, which were started on February 7, were a huge success and netted the organization a great deal of profit. Also, in February some of the girls attended the Valentine Day party at Lincoln High School.

The Milan F.H.A. Chapter chose Louise Schmenk and Margee Johnston to go to the National Convention in Chicago in July.

The Language Club has been busier than ever this year. We have had many interesting guest speakers, such as Mr. Ross, Professor Sweet from the University of Michigan, Louise Delaverdac, Yolanda Scodellaro, and Lily Maung of Burma.

At Christmas time we went caroling, took part in the annual Christmas Assembly, and sent "Care" packages.

During the basketball season we earned money by selling ice cream bars at the games. On January 13, the Language Club sponsored a dance after a game.

This year we decided to purchase Language Club pins for all the members.

The Language Club purchased a portable record player which may be used by the entire high school. This gift will be appreciated and enjoyed by everyone.

"CAROUSEL" FORMATION

Our band director, William Mihalyi, has done an excellent job during his first year of directing our band.

In the fall, we put on very good half-time shows at the football games.

On February 8, we combined with the chorus and faculty to present "Relax Awhile"

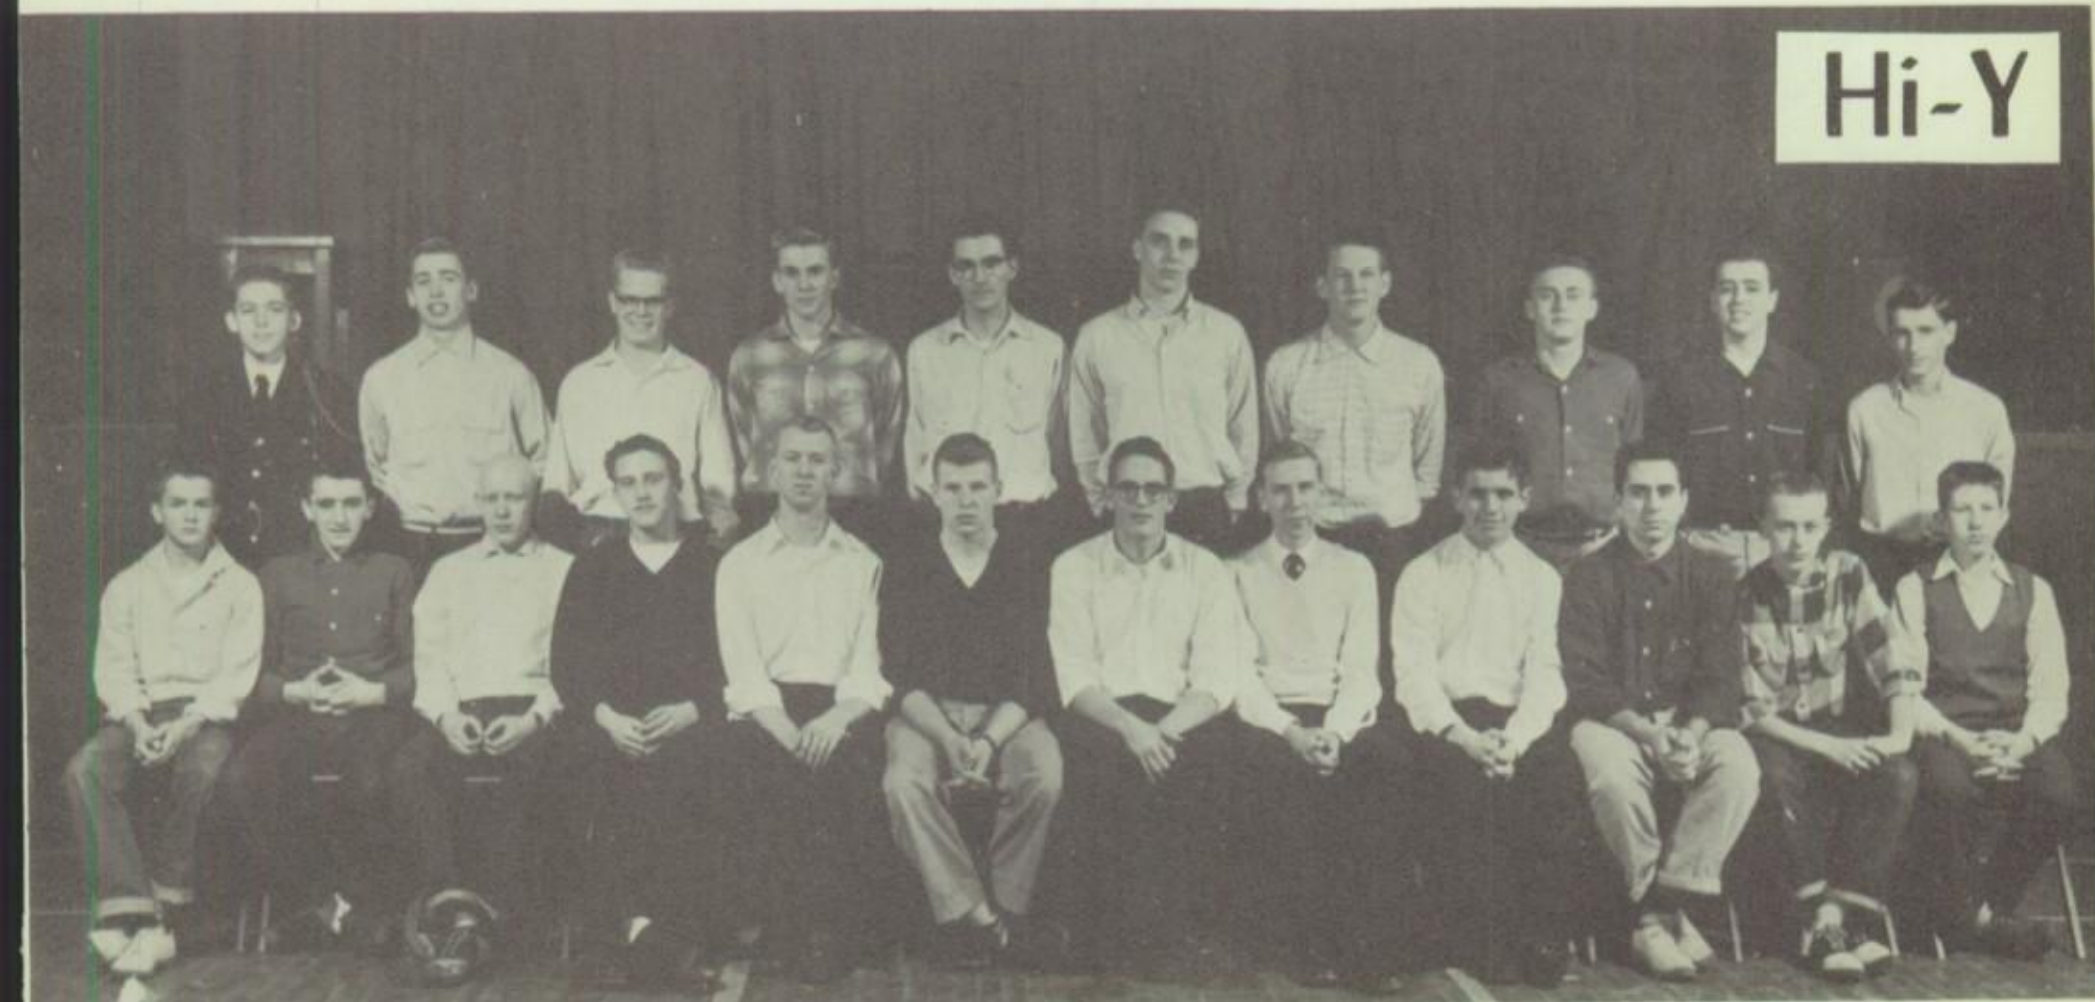

On March 3, we were awarded a second division in the District Band Festival at Wayne University.

This year some of the girls in high school with Miss Patricia Bubel's able help as advisor were successful in organizing our Girls' Athletic Club.

In the fall we elected our officers which were Jo Ann Smith, President; Louise Schmenk, Vice-President; Lupe Uranga, Secretary; Mary Shelton, Treasurer. Volleyball managers were Shirley Yeager and Judie Bubel. Basketball managers were Mary O'Donnell and Louise Schmenk.

In the late fall and during the winter we formed teams and played volleyball and basketball. We usually met after school or in the evening.

Miss Bubel and the officers are to be congratulated on the fine job they have done in organizing our new club.

Forensics, an annual activity at Milan High School, was entered into wholeheartedly this year. The local contest, held in February, was for the purpose of determining which contestants would be eligible for the district contest. Reverend Cabbage, Mrs. Howard Smith, and Reverend Westcott served as judges. Those receiving first and second places in the five areas were Josephine Meadows and Beverly Wenner in declamation; Nannette Horton and Kristin Craig in oratory; Jean Head and Elaine Dacey in interpretative reading; Judie Bubel and Rosalie Winegarden in humorous reading; Don Hann and L. J. Tooman in extempore speech. The names of the winners in each division appear in the school plaque.

The winners of the district contest were:

DECLAMATION

Beverly Wenner, "Majoring in Minors"

INTERPRETATIVE READING

Jean Head, "Sixteen"

ORATORY

Nannette Horton, "Racial Discrimination"

HUMOROUS READING

Rosalie Winegarden, "Hungah"

EXTEMPORE SPEECH

L. J. Tooman, "Is American foreign policy tough enough?"

These five people represented Milan in the regional contest which is the final contest of this event.

MOONLIGHT AND ROSES

The Junior-Senior Reception was held on May 27, 1955. The theme was "Moonlight and Roses" which was carried out by the use of white trellises entwined with pink and red roses. The false ceiling gave the effect of a night sky with the moon and stars above.

After the dinner a short program followed. The program was highlighted by a speech by Mr. Howard Herman.

Journalism Banquet

The Journalism Banquet was held on November 26. The theme, "Blue Moon," was carried out with the use of shades of blue crepe paper, silver stars, and an ice pond centerpiece.

A short program followed the dinner. A talk by Mr. Beale and a ballet performed by Mrs. Freatman highlighted the program.

Chuck Meyers' Orchestra furnished the music for the dancing.
